Comida Sabrosa: Home-Style Southwestern Cooking is a spiral bound compendium of outstanding recipes celebrating New Mexico's culinary heritage and traditions. From New Mexican Hot Chocolate; Nana's Green Chile Sauce; Southwestern Tamale Pie; and Beefed-Up Chile Casserole; to Taco Frijoles para los Ninos; Zesty Appetizer Meatballs; Dorito Casserole; and Arroz Dulce (Sweet Rice Pudding), Comida Sabrosa will prove a family favorite of easy to prepare, mouth-watering, appetite satisfying delights. A glossary is included, as are very useful instructions for microwave adaptations.

This is THE simplest cookbook you will ever buy. Seriously. And if you're a cookbook aficionado you might be disappointed. Speaking as a 6th generation native New Mexican, however, if you like NM food (which is different than Tex-Mex or actual Mexican food) this is an insider's guide to how we really cook. I had a copy given to me as a gift and I gave it away as a gift, since I already knew all the recipes. I bought it again because I just missed having it. ;) It is, as the title says, tasty food!

With no previous experience cooking Mexican food, I've become an expert flour tortilla maker - not to mention that my family devours the cheese enchiladas. Thanks!

Excellent southwestern recipes

My girlfriend has this cookbook and I really wanted my own copy. The recipes are easy to follow. If you like Hispanic food, you'll love this cookbook.
