Gordon Ramsay's Family Fare

Synopsis

In his new cookbook, superstar chef Gordon Ramsay takes a more casual approach to fine dining — the leisurely brunch with family and friends. Drawing on different culinary traditions, he offers home-cooked dishes that range from traditional roasts to lighter summer fare, from easy 30-minute meals to Italian, Indian, and Moroccan-influenced family feasts. As always, Ramsay is right there to help at every stage — buying the ingredients, guiding in preparation and serving, and helping to ensure that all dishes arrive on the table at the same time. Featured are 25 menus derived from his popular TV show, The F-Word, each with a starter, main course, and dessert, plus an invaluable timetable and a plethora of handy hints. Alternative recipes and menu suggestions are provided for those who want to pick and choose. With spectacular color photography throughout, as well as expert culinary advice and techniques, the book is a must-have for any home cook.

Customer Reviews

Gordon Ramsay's FAMILY FARE comes from a top-rated chef and TV personality who features over twenty menus to bring family together over the dinner table. Every menu receives full color photos, alternative recipes and menu suggestions, and such fast, easy dishes as Iced Berries with White Chocolate Sauce: a snap to put together. Libraries will find the famous name of Gordon Ramsay lends this a special draw.

Gordon's view of "Family Fare" is still very gourmet, which is fine if you have the time. I made one of the recipes around the holidays and everyone loved it.

I was pleasantly surprised when the book came, it looked brand new as far as I was concerned. Would not hesitate to use this company again.
