The cookie designs in this book are so artfully creative and elegant. One of the really cool elements of this book is how Autumn shows you how to use parts of one cookie cut with a cutter and either removing a part or adding parts from another to make a detailed new creature. The frosting of these cookies are definitely intricate and detailed but most assuredly do-able with the extensive directions.

This book is full of fun and creative ideas for decorated cookies. The book shows how to mix different cutters for a unique shape or how to repurpose cookie cutters. I love the way a snowman head cookie becomes a penguin! One of my favorites is taking a banana split shape and easily making a nest of baby chicks. The the 3D cookies of a momma pig and piglets is easy and a show stopper. Ms. Carpenter doesn't limit the work to one medium of decorating, but shows you how to decorate cookies using fondant, royal icing, edible glitter, icing sheets, petal dust, markers, disco dust and sugars. With so many concepts taught it is easy to create fun and unique cookies. A must have for any cookie decorating library. I have added a picture of the cookies I made using the book.

I'm in love with my cookie book!!! :) Autumn not only gives you awesome ideas, recipes, and useful tips ,but also easy step by step instructions on how to achieve a variety of adorable and perfect little creatures ---The kittens and piglets are my favorite! oh, and the tips on how to re-purpose a cookie cutter--genius!!! Autumn is the guru in cookie decorating and her cookie and icing recipes are the absolute best. I love that her instructions are so clear, and easy to understand that even a child can follow them. I've always struggled with my icing but I must admit that I've mastered the icing consistency and piping by following Autumn's recipes and instructions. Love my Creature Cookies book!!!
