Customer Reviews

I have all Greg Atkinson's cookbooks and love them. The detail is wonderful. Helps keep my cooking elegant and tasty and on track with the recipe. Excellent NW reference. I own the original book and bought the revised as well. A nice revision, hardcover and updated.

NORTHWEST ESSENTIALS: COOKING WITH INGREDIENTS THAT DEFINE A REGION'S CUISINE is based on regional ingredients readily available in the Pacific Northwest, so users should have this in mind. Originally published ten years ago, this cookbook quickly became a classic and has been reissued in a new edition packed with over fifty photos of the foods of the region and presenting dishes ranging from honey-poached pears and fresh mint ice cream to Oyster Loaf. A 'must' for any Pacific Northwest collection!

Greg really conveys his understanding of our local tastes and how to make it happen. I'm still working my way through, and the plum chutney is luscious.

I especially enjoyed the history of certain foods and enjoyed stories about family, since the author is my adopted son's uncle. Great recipes.

These recipes are approachable and delicious! Greg Atkinson is a master chef and makes the Northwest foods shine! I'll give this one as gifts.
