This is another Gooseberry Patch cookbook - what's not to like. I have tried several of the recipes and knowing they are "tried and true" makes me confident in trying any of the recipes. The Chicken Noodle Gumbo is delicious!

I have not tried too many recipes yet, but the ones I have were great. What love is simple instructions and uncomplicated ingredients. I have a few other of their books and love them as well. In this era of quick fix meals, its easy to do from scratch with these recipes! You can feel good about servicing a healthy meal for your family, instead of getting fast food.

I purchased this book for my wife. Her review follows. "I like this cookbook. I have many GP cookbooks and I although I enjoy them they can be somewhat repetitive. Not this one! The soup selections are a nice mix of standards (several chicken soups) with new or unusual soups (e.g.: a zucchini soup, kielbasa soup, hungarian mushroom soup, tomato ravioli soup) and/or different takes on standard recipes (swiss potato soup). This book also contains a nice blend of from scratch recipes and semi-homemade recipes. The chapter titled Terrific Toppings is wonderful with various sandwich spread recipes, salad dressing recipes, crouton and cracker recipes and other interesting sides (try the refrigerator pickles). All the recipes I've made so far have been tasty. kgd"

I'm never disappointed by Gooseberry Patch. This book is filled w/ easy, yet scrumptious soups, salads and sammies. There are so many I want to try I can't even begin to list them. The Peppy 4-Bean Salad is something I know I'll be making again and again this summer! Great job, Goosberry Patch!

This is an easy to use cookbook. Everything that we have tried so far, we have enjoyed. I think it deserves 4 1/2 stars. I would like to have calorie information after the recipes.

Just looking through this book, found many recipes I know I will try. Many ingredients on hand, simple to make. My only complaint, I don't know what I will try first.

What do I feed the family for lunch? This cookbook will give you the answer. In fact, lunch time might become the most anticipated meal of the day.

Some recipes looked common. I especially liked recipes for sauces. I was happy to see some unique sandwich recipes. I will definitely try some!
